EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Craig Hoersten, Reg # 38917 on 3/29/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

The claims 1-2, 5, 7-8 has been canceled.

As claim 15, line 8, "to the queue" has been changed to – to a queue --.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 15-20 allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior arts fails to disclose a system having a plurality of ports which include a first group and a second group, wherein each group has at least one port and no port within the first group is within the second group, a method of queueing and dequeuing data within a repetitive timing cycle, comprising for each port within the first group, on each of the clock cycles within the repetitive timing cycle on which the port has writing privileges, determining whether the port has data for release and, if the port has data for release, releasing data from the port to the queue, and otherwise reading data from the queue; and for each port within the second group, on each of the clock cycles within the repetitive timing cycle on which the port has writing privileges, if the port has data for release, releasing data from the port to the queue.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Ozveren (USP 6046982) discloses a system and method for using two memories write operations instead of one write and one read by monitoring the input port.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
